THE SCRIPTURE READING

Psalm 102:1-8, 16-24

1. Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to you.
2. Do not hide your face from me on the day of my distress. Incline your ear to me; answer me speedily on the day when I call.
3. For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn burn like a furnace.
4. My heart is stricken and withered like grass; I am too wasted to eat my bread.
5. Because of my loud groaning my bones cling to my skin.
6. I am like an owl of the wilderness, like a little owl of the waste places.
7. I lie awake; I am like a lonely bird on the housetop.
8. All day long my enemies taunt me; those who deride me use my name for a curse.

16. For the LORD will build up Zion; he will appear in his glory.
17. He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer.
18. Let this be recorded for a generation to come so that a people yet unborn may praise the LORD:
19. that he looked down from his holy height, from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,
20. to hear the groans of the prisoners, to set free those who were doomed to die;
21. so that the name of the LORD may be declared in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem,
22. when peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.
23. He has broken my strength in midcourse; he has shortened my days.
24. 'O my God,' I say, 'do not take me away at the midpoint of my life, you whose years endure throughout all generations.'

This is the word of the Lord
